HERE'S the POINT!

By SPENCE HELD

See where a couple of dogs named O. B.'s Credit and O.B.'s Harmony are expected to be nominated for the Caliente Gold Cup Stake at the souse-of-the-border greyhound course next month.

Are these Ocean Beach dogs?

Me, I wouldn't know . . . Caliente also released the intelligence that qualifying tests for the big race will begin July 26 "and, with just a few exceptions, competition will be restricted to dogs of Grade AA and Grade A calibre."

So they grade dogs like eggs, huh?

Several times lately I've turned on my radio and encountered a song called "The Queen of the Senior Prum."

Yeah, Prum. That's the way the guy sings it—I don't know whether it's Brooklynese or what but Prum sure rhymes with Bum, chum.

Leaping lightly from the silly to the sublime, let's throw a fish to the Culture Vulture.

The Natural History Museum in Balboa Park announced that the Foucault Pendulum (pronounced Foo-koo) has been installed on the main floor just inside the main entrance.

"This is a device which gives visual proof of the rotation of the earth. A bob swings back and forth over a dial, around which it appears to move clockwise. Actually the plane of swing remains the same and the dial and the earth are revolving counter-clockwise under the pendulum."

Fella on the Chicago Tribune made a four-month study to determine the top 10 American universities and the 10 best co-educational and men's and women's colleges.

He ranked the universities as follows: Harvard, Yale, California (Berkeley), Chicago, Columbia, Princeton, Michigan, Cornell, Wisconsin and Stanford.

Co-ed colleges: Oberlin, Swarthmore, Carleton, Reed, Pomona, Grinnell, Lawrence, College of Wooster, Kalamazoo and Hope.

Men's colleges: Haverford, Amherst, Kenyon, Wesleyan, Hamilton, Union, Bowdoin, U. of the South, Washington and Lee and Williams.

Women's Colleges: Bryn Mawr, Radcliffe, Barnard, Vassar, Mount Holyoke, Wellesley, Smith, Goucher, Pembroke and Randolph-Macon.

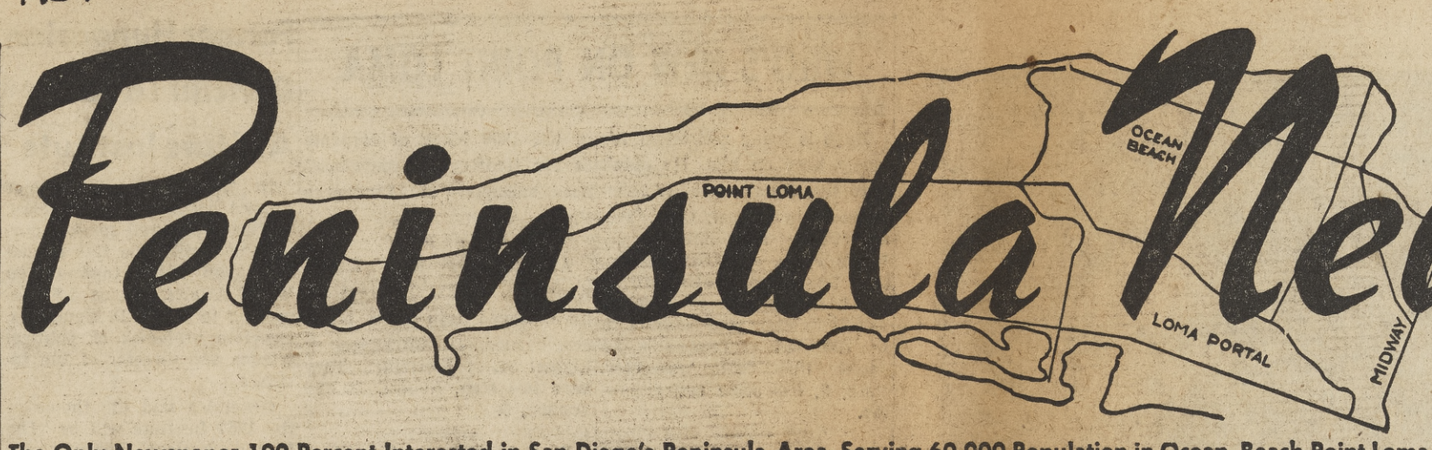

What's that? Your alma tomato ain't on the list? Neither is mine.

The DeVry Technical Institute in Chicago will never make my list of the 10 best anything. They sent me a sales pitch this week addressed to "J. Spencer Half."

Half a name is better than none, huh?

The season's first no-hit no-run game, manufactured by Larry Bardy, Mike Gay and Gordy Lutes; a grand slam homer by Whitney's Robert Falar and Oscar's Midway sixth straight triumph featured second-half action in the Loma Portal Little League last week.

Bardy, Gay and Lutes split mound duties Wednesday in the no-hitter as Oscars shellacked Cubic Corp., 15-0, with Billy Krause, Steve Gobel and Gay leading the batting attack. Krause and Gobel collected 2 for 3 while Gay hit 3 for 5.

Jay Morgener's two-run single tied the score at 3-all in the fifth and Garry Lutes tallied the winning run in the last half of the sixth. Lutes led off with an infield hit, stole second and crossed the plate on an error.

Whitney's, moving into second place with a 4-2 mark, started the week with a 10-8 triumph over North Lumber. Roger Esty's three-run homer in the last panel was the decisive blow. Eddie Lanzner also homered for the victors. Steve Frank and Garry Page, with two hits apiece in two at-bats, starred for the Lumbermen.

Robert Falar's grand slammer in the third inning sparked Whitney's to a 9-2 win over Cubic Saturday. It was Falar's seventh home run and he leads the League in that department.

47-Pound Yellow Tops Derby Fish

Heaviest yellowtail of the season, large bluefin tuna, and hefty albacore all took turns shaking up the qualifying list of the $25,000 San Diego Yellowtail Derby this week, and it now appears that a 25 pounder will be none too safe by the time the curtain drops on the second of the three rounds Saturday night.

The big yellow was an even 47 pounder caught at South Coronado Island by Joseph Maxwell, of Ramona, giving him a stranglehold on the derby leadership.

Albacore played the leading role in the qualifying drama, among the big ones of the week being the following: 32-10, W. H. Dow, Tujunga; 30-14, George Ayres, San Diego; 30-12, Claude Kreider, Long Beach; 30-12, Claude Udkoff, Whittier, and 30-5, Frank Blaylock, Whittier.

Largest bluefin checked in was a 24-13 brought to gaff by M. S. Jepsen, Santa Monica, and runner-up a 24-10 caught by Ken Andrews, Inglewood.

As the final week of qualifying in the second period began, minimum weight had risen to 24 pounds 9 ounces and was going up like a rocket.

Qualifying in the final period will begin Sunday and will continue for eight weeks. Second period fishoff for the 150 top fishermen is slated for July 26.

The Travelers Safety Service

Drivers under 25 years of age were involved in 27% of the fatal accidents in 1956.

Drunken Driver Menace Increases

SACRAMENTO — Persons who drive while under the influence of alcohol are definite menaces on the highways, says the California Highway Patrol.

"Current records indicate a continuing increase in the number of persons who drive while under the influence of alcohol," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell. "In fact, drivers under the influence of alcohol are piling up a shameful record of death and injury on our streets and highways.

"Investigation shows these errant drivers fail to realize the hazards of such action, that one slight error in judgment may cause a regretable accident," Caldwell stated. "A tight situation occurs requiring quick, positive action and a fast reaction to avoid trouble, but the drinking driver's mental and physical reaction time is slowed to the danger point.

"The result is a blinding crash and another traffic accident is charged to the drinking driver," he continued. "Safety, not sorrow, is possible through a sensible approach to our driving problems; an important factor is to avoid driving while influenced by intoxicants."

BRIDGE SCORES

Community Center bridge scores for July 10 were as follows: High Over-All North-South—Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Shunk; 2—Estelle Wells, Mamie Fowler; 3—Cathy Morrison, Lawrence Kelner. East-West—Ida Mae Booth, Art Hughes; 2—Mr. and Mrs. Paul deLannoy; 3—Mr. and Mrs. James Oliver.

Keep your head while driving and you won't lose your life, points out the National Automobile Club.

MIRAGE

A Point Loma matron took a group of teenage boys and girls roller skating. The activity looked so easy that the old gal began wondering if she could still skate.

She stood it as long as she could, plunked down her dollar and was handed a pair of skates. The rink attendants helped her to the railing and from there she had help from others.

Gradually her confidence returned and she was managing nicely. Then the lights were lowered and "Couple Skating" was called. One by one her girls were claimed by their dates and off they skated.

Then a young lad stopped and asked her to skate. It seemed he was quite a fancy skater. He put his hands on her waist and skated backward as she placed her hands on his shoulders and skated forward. The music was soft and sweet, and she was feeling quite young and wonderful.

Then, as they gracefully rounded a curve, she passed her teenage daughter who, aghast, shrieked, "MOTHER!"

WHICH REMINDS ME

An old gentleman from out-of-town dropped by the office recently and left this ditty with Bea, the girl in the front:

"How do I know my youth has been spent?
'Cause my get-up-and-go got up and went."

PROBLEM

Then there was the father who gave his teenage daughter a (private line) telephone of her own. He was surprised to return home one day and find her using the family instrument.

"Why don't you use your own phone?" he demanded.

"But Daddy," explained the daughter ,"I don't want to tie up my line. I'm expecting a very important call."

SOLUTION

A group of concerned parents were discussing their children's behavior.

"Well," bragged one Point Loma father, "I'm not having any trouble with my youngster."

"How do you account for that?" the harassed group wanted to know.

"He's out of town," was the retort.

DON'T JUNIOR!

With all the modern psychologists pushing the positive approach method for teaching children, it was delightful recently to hear one in the firing line of didactics say: "I don't like to see Pollyanna under one arm and Dale Carnegie under the other. Parents should learn to be good thinkers. Well, blast it, be a little negative!"

HEARD AND LIKED

What we see in other people is usually what we see in ourselves.

SIGNS OF SUMMER

Lawn moths . . . Small boys, barefoot, carrying jars and calmly prospecting the neighborhood for caterpillars, bugs, snails, what-have-you . . . Lawn moths . . . Long distance telephone calls, collect. "Daddy, I'm having the most glorious time, but I've spent all my money. Could you please wire me ten dollars to get home on?" . . . Lawn moths.

HITHER, THITHER, YON

Mrs. Laura Aguilera, of Santiago, Chili, is visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Aguilera, 4259 Orchard Ave. Scheduling her visit at this time, Mrs. Aguilera misses the winter season in Chili.

Mrs. Ronald Brenneck, of 3811 Jennings St., just returned from a flying trip to Mexico City where she attended the wedding of her brother. The Brennecks are newcomers to the Peninsula area, having moved here from La Jolla.

A houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Welch, of 1819 Sunset Cliffs Blvd., is his mother, Mrs. Addie Welch, of Hillsdale, Mich. "I found my first plane trip a very pleasant experience," she said.

HEALTH FOR ALL

How much is good health worth to you? If you have it, you don't worry about it. If you don't have it, you'd give every cent to get it. You can't put a price on it. But you do pay for it.

The average American family spends four to five per cent of its yearly income for medical care and related service. All of us together spend more than ten billion dollars for personal health service. That's not counting what the federal, state and local governments spend. Of course, we spend more than that for recreation, more for alcoholic beverages and tobacco, twice as much for buying and maintaining our cars. Four or five per cent doesn't seem too much for health.

But does that mean you can budget five per cent for medical expenses for the coming year, and stick to the budget? We all know better than that. Where is that average American family? A 1953 survey showed that 11 per cent of American families incurred 43 per cent of the national health bill. Eight per cent had no medical costs whatever that year. Wonder what happened to them in 1954?

We all know that illness inevitably strikes each of us at some time. Even with the wonders of modern medical science good health is not a foregone conclusion. We can't take it for granted.

Good health is possible only when we take advantage of what modern science can do for us. Maybe this year you and your family were lucky. Maybe you din't spend your share of that ten billion dollars. But you don't have to trust to luck. You can help yourself avoid the heavy medical expenditures that come with serious illness. See your doctor periodically for a check up. Call him in the early stages of illness. Let him help you keep your priceless good health.

S. D. Symphony Will Be Augmented By 300-Voice Chorus Tuesday Night

A chorus of more than 300 voices and 50 young instrumentalists will augment the San Diego Symphony Orchestra Tuesday night, July 23 for the presentation of the great German Requiem, Op. 45 by Brahms, at the third summer series concert in Balboa Park Bowl at 8:30 p.m.

Soloists with the chorus and orchestra, which will be under the direction of Robert Shaw, will be Adele Addison, soprano, and Mack Harrell, baritone. As an opening number for the concert the orchestra will play the Brandenburg Concerto No. 4 by Bach.

While Conductor Robert Shaw has been rehearsing the orchestra for its first two concerts in Balboa Park Bowl, the singers have been working under the supervision of John Wustman, conductor of the San Diego Symphony Chorus. The 50 young musicians who will be added to the string and woodwind sections of the orchestra for Tuesday night's performance of the Brahms Requiem have been rehearsing with Daniel Lewis, assistant conductor of the San Diego Symphony Orchestra and conductor of the Civic Youth Orchestra.

San Diego Symphony Orchestra concerts will continue each Tuesday night at Balboa Park Bowl at 8:30 p.m. through Aug. 20. Special Inside "Intimate Series" Concerts will begin Friday, July 19, also at 8:30 p.m., and continue through Aug. 16. All except the July 26 concert will be at Hoover High School Auditorium. It will be a free admission concert at St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Tickets for both the Tuesday night and Friday night concerts are available at Palmer Box Office, 640 Broadway, BE-9-4700.

Horse racing will be held on 10 out of the 12 days of this year's California State Fair and Exposition, August 28 through September 8 in Sacramento. The ponies will run every day except the two Sundays in the schedule.

RESEARCH PROGRAM—E. D. Sherwin, left, president of the San Diego Gas & Electric Co., learns about an atomic hydrogen beam apparatus from Dr. Frederic de Hoffmann, a vice-president of General Dynamics Corp. and division general manager of General Atomic. The Gas & Electric Co. will participate in General Atomic's research program on nuclear fission power reactor systems.

Prudential Plans Expansion In Area

Prudential Insurance Co. will carry out extensive expansion activities in this area, Sidney V. Mitchell, director of agencies for the company, announced Tuesday.

Prudential believes San Diego to be "one of the brightest spots on the map today from the standpoint of long term outlook," Mitchell told a luncheon audience of 50 Ocean Beach-Point Loma business and civic leaders gathered at the Kona Kai Club. The luncheon marked the opening of the company's district agency at 4202 Voltaire St.

Expansion activities with the people of San Diego have already begun, according to Mitchell, who said Prudential had nearly $20,000,000 of residential, farm and industrial mortgage loans in force in San Diego County at the close of 1956. This was a $1,500,000 increase over the 1955 year-end total, he revealed.

Mortgage loans totaling $824,000 have been disbursed in San Diego County by his company during the first five months of 1957, the insurance executive said. In California, Prudential puts back $1.19 in the form of investments, payrolls, benefits, payments and taxes for each $1 paid to the company in the form of premiums, interest and rents, he said.

William R. Settles, manager of the new district agency, and A. K. McCall, vice-president and manager, Midway branch of the First National Trust & Savings Bank, were co-hosts at the luncheon.

The regular Daily Vacation Bible School for Nursery through 6th grade also will begin July 22 at the church. Each morning from 9 to noon a staff of more than 50 teachers, led by Mrs. LoRaine Walsh, superintendent, will lead the children in Bible study, missionary stories, play and crafts.

Culminating the two-week Daily Vacation Bible School will be a final Bible Rally Aug. 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the church sactuary, when both the morning and evening groups will present a program and show samples of their efforts.

'King Lear' Opens At Old Globe Theatre Friday

William Shakespeares' powerful and dramatic story of "King Lear" will open the 8th Annual San Diego National Shakespeare Festival at the Old Globe Theatre in Balboa Park Friday, July 19. Curtain-time is scheduled for 8:30 p.m., preceded by the traditional Olde English Country Fair on the theatre green beginning at 8 p.m.

Directed by Allen Fletcher, "iKing Lear" will play July 19, 20 & 21 and then give way to B. Iden Payne's production of "The Tempest." This farcical comedy, which was Shakespeare's last complete play, will hold the stage of the Globe Theatre July 22, 23, and 24 and then be replaced by "Knight of the Burning Pestle," a hilarious and satirical comedy by the Elizabethan playwright, Francis Beaumont. It will be directed by Craig Noel and play July 25, 26 and 27.

Following the three sets of "opening nights," the plays will be given in rotation in this order nightly through September 1.

The Olde English Country Fair, which will be seen every night at 8 p.m., will feature madrigal singing by the Globe Consort, authentic Elizabethan court and folk dancing directed by Joseph Swedelius, and music by Colin and Roberta Sterne of the University of Pittsburgh, nationally-known performers on such Elizabethan instruments as the lute, recorder and virginals.

Lillie Mae Barr will preside over the pre-curtain pagentry as Good Queen Bess.

The Globe Theatre in Balboa Park and the green will be gaily decorated for the Festival. Tickets for all performers are available at the Globe Theatre box office.

Del Mar Turf Club's 18th Summer Meeting Scheduled To Open July 24

DEL MAR—With the opening of Del Mar Turf Club's 18th summer meeting just a week away, backstretch tempo is beginning to pick up and the first official workouts are due to be recorded this week.

Stable Superintendent Norvell Snyder reports close to 100 horses are already bedded down at the popular turf-surf course, which ups the curtain on its 41-day session Wednesday, July 24.

Horsemen who have inspected the mile oval here have pronounced it in outstanding condition and horses have been galloping over it since last weekend.

The mile racing strip has been conditioned by the McDonald scarifier, a huge machine designed exclusively for race track work and endorsed enthusiastically by the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association. The scarifier is under a long-term lease to Del Mar.

One of the horses expected to breeze tomorrow is the former Australian great, Pride of Egypt, which was imported here by Carrot King Joe Maggio and the brothers, Lawrence and George Gray.

Pride of Egypt was one of Austrialia's brightest thoroughbred stars two years ago when he won such stakes as the Flemington St. Leger, Austrialian Jockey Club St. Leger and Victoria Derby. He was retired in 1955, but will make a comeback here this summer.

Others scheduled to test the track tomorrow are Lefty James and Y Bond, stakes winners from the stable of J. Kel Houssels of Las Vegas and several charges from the stable of C. L. Clayton of San Ysidro.

The stable area population is expected to grow steadily now, as Hollywood Park draws to a close, until the capacity of approximately 1300 horses is reached.
